As Tinc celebrates another year in business here in New York City, I want to thank not only our clients, but each and every employee of the company that has worked with us since our founding in 2007. It is because of you that Tinc has grown into a successful and solution-oriented entertainment enterprise...as well as a great place to work!

No one person— or business — is an island, and that is especially true of a company like ours.

Tinc has seen our industry completely reimagine itself time and time again, surviving recessions and, most recently, a pandemic. We have not just weathered these challenges, but have grown and adapted to continually meet and exceed our client and employee needs. And we have done so with the dedication and poise that defines precision, professionalism, and partnership in our industry.

To say that I am proud of this work is an understatement.

As we continue to add years of service, I am confident in the knowledge that we stand on a bedrock foundation that allows our company to continue to meet and adapt to the evolving trends in the entertainment market.

Thank you, and here is to our bright future!

Best,

Duncan R. Northern
CEO — Tinc Productions LLC.
